

ADAM KLAUSNER
Senior Lecturer
Cornell University
School of Hotel Administration
435E Statler Hall
Ithaca, NY 14853
aak12@cornell.edu

EDUCATION

B.A., Cornell University 1984

College of Arts & Sciences

J.D., Cornell Law School 1988

TEACHING EXPERIENCE

Cornell University, School of Hotel Administration, 1998 to Present

Real Estate Law, Internet Law, Law for Entrepreneurs

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Klausner Cook, PLLC 2020- present

A boutique transactional law firm with a focus on corporate and real estate law. The firm specializes in business formations, mergers and acquisitions, real estate purchase and sale transactions, and financing. Adam also represents non-profit organizations, including groups dedicated to the promotion of culture, music, education, science, international development, and the environment.

Adam Klausner, Esq., 2002- 2019

Legal counsel to companies in real estate, hospitality, technology, and a wide range of other fields, with extensive experience in corporate creation, startups and corporate, real estate and business transactions.

Waterfront Enterprises 2004-Present

Investor and developer of real estate properties, primarily residential single family homes, but also including duplex apartments and commercial property. Recent development project: 241 Cherry St Gym, Ithaca, completed 2014.

Brown, Pinnisi & Michaels, P.C., Ithaca, New York, 1998 – 2002

Corporate & Real Estate Department Chair
Specializing in business law, including corporate, and real estate matters.

Entrepreneur, Garden Island Flowers, Kauai, Hawaii, 1994 -- 1998

Tropical plant and flower grower and shipper. Successful lease applicant for agricultural land from the State of Hawaii.

BOARD & COMMITTEE SERVICE

Board of Directors, Musicians for World Harmony, 2012-present.

Workshop Presenter, Entrepreneurial Boot Camp for Disabled Veterans, Cornell EBV program; 2012-Present.

Board of Directors, Tompkins Literacy Partners, 2004-2006